

PROGRAM

Scientific Sessions

16 September 1968

Session I. Opening Ceremony.

Welcome of delegates by Dr. R. G. Cochrane, President of the Congress.
Address by the Rt. Hon. Kenneth Robinson, Minister of Health for Great Britain.

Messages of Greeting from the Patron and Vice-Patrons.

Session II. Epidemiology, Including Genetics.

Chairman: Dr. C. E. Taylor

Session III. Ophthalmologic Aspects.

Chairman: Mr. H. E. Hobbs

17 September 1968

Session IV. Experimental Leprosy—Bacteriology.

Chairman: Dr. C. C. Shepard

Session V. Physiotherapy and Prostheses.

Chairman: Prof. T. N. Jagadisan

Session VI. Experimental Leprosy—Pathology, with Special Reference to Neurologic aspects.

Chairman: Dr. A. G. Weddell

Session VII. Leprosy Control.

Chairman: Dr. B. D. Molesworth

18 September 1968

Session VIII. Immunology, with Special Reference to Hypersensitivity in Leprosy.

Chairman: Dr. J. H. Hanks

Session IX. Reconstructive Surgery.

Chairman: Dr. P. W. Brand

Session X. BCG and Prophylaxis.

Chairman: Dr. P. D'A Hart

Session XI. Clinical and Surgical Aspects of Nerve Damage in Human Leprosy.

Chairman: Dr. N. H. Antia

19 September 1968

Session XII. Reactions—Immunologic Aspects.

Chairman: Dr. D. S. Ridley

Session XIII. Psychologic Aspects of Leprosy.

Chairman: Dr. O. W. Hasselblad

Session XIV. Reactions—Clinical Aspects and Therapy.

Chairman: Dr. R. D. Azulay

Session XV. The Rehabilitation of the Leprosy Patient.

Chairman: Mrs. E. Weaver

20 September 1968

Session XVI. Chemotherapy of Leprosy—Experimental Aspects.

Chairman: Dr. S. R. M. Bushby

Session XVII. Chemotherapy of Leprosy—Clinical Aspects and Therapy.

Chairman: Dr. M. F. R. Waters

21 September 1968

Session XVIII. Discussion—"Cooperation and Priorities."

Chairman: Dr. T. F. Davey

Session XIX. Closing Ceremony and Presentation of the Damien-Dutton Award.

Abstracts of the papers presented or scheduled for presentation at the sessions indicated are set forth (571-667) by the offset method of reproduction from the book of "Abstracts," which was distributed to participants in the Congress. The sequence of abstracts in the latter is the same as that in the printed "Programme of the Ninth International Congress," which was also distributed to participants.